01 COMPANY OVERVIEW

WOFT is a purpose-built tactical training campus delivering advanced operational training for federal agencies, law enforcement, military, first responders, and security professionals. Training emphasizes vehicle-stop operations, pursuit tactics, vehicle-based engagement, tactical firearms, emergency medical response, and scenario-based decision-making inside realistic, mission-focused environments.

02 MISSION

Equip everyday people — including government and security personnel — with the physical skills, situational awareness, and decision-making mindset to respond effectively under high-stress, unwanted circumstances. Directly supports government objectives in preparedness, resilience, force protection, and risk mitigation.

03 TRAINING PHILOSOPHY

Operational competence built through realistic scenarios that replicate vehicle contacts, pursuit decision-making, officer communication, tactical medical response, dynamic critical incidents, and situational-awareness decisions — every block trained under decision pressure.
